BILL CAROLLO TO RECEIVE NASO'S GOLD WHISTLE AWARD

Congratulations go out to Bill Carollo, who has been named the recipient of the Gold Whistle Award of the National Association of Sports Officials (NASO). Carollo, of Shorewood, WI, is currently the coordinator of football officials for the Big Ten Conference, the Mid-American Conference, and the Missouri Valley Football Conference. He will receive NASO's highest honor in officiating at the awards dinner on July 31 during the organization's annual meeting in New Orleans.

No one in the officiating community commands deeper respect than Bill Carollo. A veteran Big Ten and NFL referee, Carollo is widely recognized as a strong leader in football officiating, and continues to serve as an instructor and mentor for a very large number of officials. He has developed an expertise in Instant Replay and serves as the chair of the Instant Replay Committee of the Division I coordinators.

In making its annual selection, NASO recognizes an individual who has made significant contributions to the betterment of officiating and who embodies a high degree of integrity and character that are so greatly valued by everyone on officiating.

Heartiest congratulations, Bill, on an award richly deserved.
