

DAVID M. PARRY AWARD NOMINATION

This serves as the announcement that nominations are now being accepted for the David M. Parry Award. The Parry Award is presented annually to a college football officiating coordinator for exemplary professionalism, leadership and a commitment to sportsmanship on and off the field.

Please note that this award is open to coordinators that meet the criterion at all levels (FBS, FCS, Division II or III).

To be considered for this prestigious award, a nominee must possess the criterion below:

- Significant contribution and dedication to football officiating by providing the best possible education and training to game officials;
- Have the highest degree of integrity and ethics;
- Contributed a lifetime dedication to the improvement of officiating;
- Always placing the game above the individual.

To enter a nomination for this award, please use the link below and enter all information:

https://ncaa.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_beaJvL4IsG2TP6Z

The deadline for nominations is December 15, 2017.

For any questions regarding the nomination process or criterion, please contact Bill Carollo (carollo@bigten.org).

WC/RR/TH/11/17