

College Football Officiating, LLC National Director of Instant Replay

Position Announcement

The College Football Officiating, LLC is accepting applications or nominations for the position of National Director of Instant Replay. To apply, please forward a cover letter, resume, and references to: Ty Halpin at the NCAA via e-mail (thalpin@ncaa.org). Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Criteria

- Character and integrity for leadership of a national program in intercollegiate athletics
- Demonstrated ability in football officiating leadership
- Demonstrated ability to develop and lead an Instant Replay program
- Capability for being the public face of Instant Replay for college football
- Excellent football experience in Division I
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Familiarity with replay technologies

Responsibilities

- Report to the National Coordinator of Football Officials.
- Serve as the national spokesperson for college football Instant Replay.
- In collaboration with the CFO Board of Managers, develop a long-term strategic vision for instant replay.
- Work with the conference coordinators of officials to improve national consistency and performance in Instant Replay.
- Create national Instant Replay recruitment and development program to include regional grassroots clinics.
- Chair the coordinators Instant Replay Committee and participate in the CFO annual meetings of coordinators.
- Plan and lead the annual National Instant Replay Clinic.
- Develop in-season national training materials for use by Instant Replay officials.
- Collaborate with the conference coordinators to develop a profile for an Instant Replay Official.
- Collaborate with the secretary-rules editor in annually editing Rule 12 and the Instant Replay Casebook and Mechanics Manual.
- Work with the College Football Playoff and CFO Board of Managers regarding Instant Replay for the bowl games and the College Football Playoff.
- Work with FCS, D-II and D-III conferences in using Instant Replay